

Top Ten Challenges Santa Must Overcome When the Christmas Season Is Pushed Forward.

1. The elves are threatening to walk out in protest, so Santa must negotiate with the union representative.
2. The reindeer are unwilling to leave the warm water of the summer pool.
3. Repairs on the sleigh are not quite done, because several parts are on back order.
4. Mrs. Claus has to make Santa a polyester suit, since his old one is 100% wool.
5. Santa has to special order new batteries for Rudolph's nose.
6. Santa will have to squeeze in time to check the naughty/nice list twice. Maybe kids will get a break this year.
7. Santa will have to go on an eating blitz to regain the weight he lost over the summer.
8. To save time, Santa may ask kids to text him their wish lists.
9. Vixen is on maternity leave, so Santa must find a replacement.
10. They have to reschedule their annual visit to Mrs. Claus's mother. Santa is hoping they will have to forego it.
